Segway has been a proud participant in the last three Super Bowl games, providing electric, green transportation for the event's extensive security and patrolling operations.

At this year's big game, we supplied more than 25 Segway PTs to support public safety, television and event production, and even assist stranded motorists in getting back on the road.

Check out video footage and more at <http://www.segway.com/superbowl/>.
